Health and Wellbeing Workshops

	Health Education Workshops
Achieving your potential	<ul> <li>Define what success and failure are and what they mean to you.</li> <li>Identifying helpful and unhelpful ways of thinking</li> <li>Where does fear come from?</li> <li>How we can recognise rational and irrational thinking patterns and habits at work</li> <li>Making the most of feedback whilst applying for work and whilst in-work</li> </ul>
Assertiveness	<ul> <li>Identify and look into different types of communication styles</li> <li>Identify the effects of different communication styles and their impact in the workplace</li> <li>Explore the skills required for communicating assertively</li> <li>Identify how people can lack assertiveness, and the impact this has in the workplace</li> <li>Practical techniques for developing an assertive approach</li> <li>Practising assertiveness techniques in preparation for work</li> </ul>
Confidence building	<ul> <li>What is confidence?</li> <li>How do we lose, gain and rebuild confidence at work?</li> <li>Developing communication skills and identifying their importance at work</li> <li>How does confidence affect your physical and mental health, and the impact this can have at work?</li> <li>Identifying and overcoming challenges in the workplace</li> <li>Session 2</li> <li>Self- esteem and the impact this has on the way we perform in interviews and at work</li> <li>Identifying self-worth and identifying the positive impact this can have on your employment experience</li> <li>Developing positive affirmations and recognising we are what consistently affirm</li> </ul>
Dealing with negative comments	<ul> <li>Identify behaviours that others can display that we could find challenging or negative in the workplace</li> <li>Identify techniques that we can implement to deal with negative or challenging behaviours</li> <li>Techniques to support the development of a positive mental attitude in the workplace</li> <li>Exploring how to deal with challenging situations at work</li> </ul>

Exercise and Gain an understanding of the benefits of exercise on both our wellbeing physical and mental health Improve your understanding towards the benefits of exercise and increasing physical activity. Learn more about the types of physical activity and finding something which you enjoy and can benefit from Explore current guidelines around exercise and identify how exercise can positively impact on your journey back into work Session 1 Managing your mood How do we define 'mood' Strategies that help us manage and control our mood • Identify how sleep, diet and exercise influence positive routine and health How to combat automatic negative thought processes in work How to recognise and challenge negative thoughts to improve work satisfaction Explore relaxation techniques as a coping strategy Session 2 • Identifying factors that positively and negatively influence our mood Mood improvement: identifying pathways to work, consider the benefits of volunteering and courses How cognitive behavioural techniques can improve our mood Develop a mood improvement plan using SMART targets Motivational Session 1 strategies Explore what is meant by motivation • Identifying signs that indicate low motivation for seeking or sustaining work How SMART goal setting improves focus and motivation Tips to keep motivated when seeking work How to manage barriers to motivation Session 2 Explore how to get and stay motivated Practising affirmations that develop motivation for job search, and employment Maximising energy levels to improve motivation for work searching and sustaining employment Exploring what drives our motivation and ways to strengthen these to achieve work goals and ambitions Positive Identify what positive outlooks are outlooks Understand that you have the choice to react positively to situations and people Help you to achieve success in your job seeking and wider lives

	<ul> <li>Enable and encourage you to take specific actions towards achieving a more positive attitude</li> <li>Identify how your outlook on life can directly impact on the way you feel, think and behave</li> </ul>
Sleep and Routine	<ul> <li>How a lack of sleep affects us and recommended amounts of sleep</li> <li>The stages of sleep and what causes sleep problems</li> <li>The importance of routine whilst preparing to return to work and whilst in-work, what makes up our routine and what can disrupt our routine</li> <li>Explore and develop of ways to create a new routine and maintain it to enable a better night's sleep</li> </ul>
Stress management and coping strategies	<ul> <li>Understand what stress is including the physical and psychological effects</li> <li>To be more aware of our warning signs when we are under stress</li> <li>Learn about the 'fight or flight' response</li> <li>To be more aware of helpful and unhelpful techniques to cope with stress</li> <li>Identify practical management stress management techniques including relaxation</li> </ul>
	Health Specific Workshops
Anxiety management	<ul> <li>Introduction to what anxiety is and the causes of anxiety</li> <li>Understand how anxiety affects us</li> <li>Introduce fight or flight response</li> <li>Present strategies to manage anxiety</li> </ul>
	Lifestyle and Wellbeing Workshops
Exercise and physical activity	<ul> <li>Definitions of exercise and physical activity</li> <li>To identify what are the benefits or exercise and increased physical activity</li> <li>To explore the importance of weight management and how exercise positively impacts on our general health and mental</li> </ul>
	wellbeing
Healthy eating	·

	<ul> <li>Identify helpful coping strategies to manage lifestyle and wellbeing</li> <li>Identify common issues that can cause work, and domestic stress</li> <li>Explore and identify how employment can have a positive impact on health and wellbeing</li> <li>Develop a plan that identifies how you will manage and improve your wellbeing in preparation for work</li> </ul>
	Work Specific Workshops
Disclosing your health condition	<ul> <li>To find out more about health disclosure</li> <li>Understand the Equality Act and your rights</li> <li>Discuss disclosure of your health condition – if necessary to disclose, when to disclose</li> <li>Increase confidence in talking positively about your condition at interviews or in the workplace</li> <li>To identify some specific examples</li> </ul>
Managing interview nerves	<ul> <li>To increase understanding of how and why nerves can impact us in an interview situation</li> <li>To increase awareness that nerves are a natural response to interview situations, which we are likely to perceive as stressful</li> <li>Discussion and development of effective techniques to manage interview nerves</li> <li>To discuss/review top tips for preparation</li> </ul>
Managing work life balance	<ul> <li>Explore what work life balance means</li> <li>Discuss what that can impact on this</li> <li>Discuss the benefits of having a healthy work life balance and to identify ways to achieve this</li> <li>To identify top tips and techniques for maintaining a healthy work life balance</li> </ul>
Work, Health and Wellbeing	<ul> <li>Identify the relationship between work, health and wellbeing.</li> <li>Explore wellbeing in more depth and how the right kind of work can be important in the management of your health.</li> <li>Understand the benefits of work for our physical, mental, social and financial wellbeing</li> </ul>
	Weekly Workshops
Relaxation group	<ul> <li>Discover the benefits of regular relaxation techniques such as improved sleep, reduce stress or anxiety and reduce muscle tension</li> <li>Participate in practical relaxation techniques such as mindfulness, imagery, breathing techniques and progressive muscular relaxation</li> </ul>

Understand the importance of relaxation in preparation for work and as part of an effective in-work coping

